

The Quiz

TEST YOUR KNOWLEDGE OF ALL THINGS JACKSONVILLE

1. Completed in 1927 and utilizing more than one million bricks during construction, which still-standing downtown building was the first in the city to feature air-conditioning throughout?

2. Following his 1990 trial in Jacksonville, pilot Jorge Mario de la Cuesta was convicted and sentenced to two life terms in federal prison for smuggling. For whom did Jorge work and what did he smuggle?

3. Local restaurant Carolina Jax offers diners the chance to partake in its "Mountain Smash Burger Challenge." In 40 minutes or less, one must consume a "burger" topped with one pound of cheese and a side of fries. What's the total weight of food one needs to eat to win the challenge?

4. Owner Roy Chamblin's westside landmark Chamblin Bookmine holds more than one million paperbacks and hardbacks in stock. When opened in 1976, how many boxes of books—all of which smelled of smoke from a fire—did he have offer for sale?

5. The 17th is the only hole on the Stadium Course at TPC Sawgrass with one sand bunker. In total, how many bunkers are found across all 18 holes. Hint: there are 32 on the back 9.

6. When retail icon J.C. Penney founded the village of Penney Farms near Green Cove Springs in 1926, there were several restrictions placed on residents. The use of two products in particular were verboten. Doing so was cause for eviction. What were the products?

ANSWERS: 1. Florida Theatre 2. Carlos Lehder & Pablo Escobar, cocaine 3. Seven pounds 4. 15 boxes 5. 84 6. Alcohol & tobacco